1 Each bidder before he is permitted to bid is required to furnish solvency certificate as under the tangadi sale rules and shall deposit a sum of Rs. 50 (fifty only) as earnest money with the officer conducting the sale; the deposit will be returnable to him at the close of the sale if his bid is not accepted. The bid to be entered will be per acre. The person whose bid is accepted shall immediately after the close of the sale pay 25 per cent of the bid amount less the deposit already paid with cesses at two annas and three pies in the rupee along with health cess at Re. 0-1-0 per rupee on the full sale amount, failing which, the earnest money will be ferfeited and the right will be resold or worked departmentally at risk of the defaulting bidder. He will be liable for the loss, if any, that may result by such resale or departmental working which will be recoverable from him as arrears of land revenue, but he shall not participate in any gain.

2 Defaulters to the Department will not be allowed to bid at the sale.

3 Power is reserved to the officer conducting the sale to accept or reject any bid without assigning any reason therefor.

4 Within a week from the date of intimation of the confirmation of the sale, the person whose bid is accepted shall deposit a sum of Rs. 50 (rupees fifty) or 25 per cent of the sale amount whichever is less for each coupe as security towards the due fulfilment of his contract. He shall also pay within that period the remaining 75 per cent of the sale amount due by him and shall execute an agreement on a stamped paper accepting the above terms and the terms specified below, failing which, the amount already paid will be forfeited to Government and the produce resold or worked departmentally at his risk as noted in clause (2) supra. The security deposit or the balance thereof as may remain over shall be repayable to the contractor on his producing proof relieving him of any liability under the contract.

Other conditions will be read out at the time of the sale. Copies of detailed Notification can be had from the District Forest Office.
